Legal Awareness Programme on "Civil and Criminal Law"

Knowledge of the law is essential to the Safety of Life

-Sri S.G.Salagare

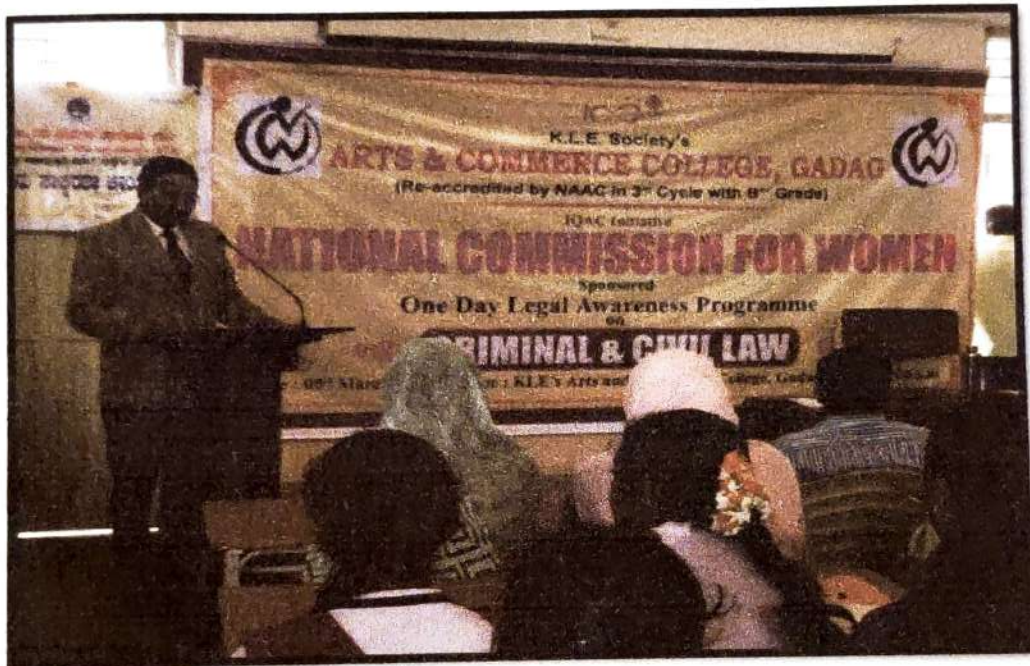

In Indian culture, a woman is revered, but she lives in a breathtaking atmosphere, bounded between four walls. Social reformers such as Rajaram Mohanaraya have been compensated for inhuman practices such as intimacy, child marriage and the need for legal knowledge such as the right to education, the right to freedom and equality. KLES Arts and Commerce College Gadag, IQAC initiative, and National Woman's Commission Sponsorship and District Legal Services Authority Gadag District Inaugurating a One Day Legal Awareness Program on 05-03-2020, The resource person said: "In the eyes of the law, everyone is equal and everyone has equal rights. No caste, creed, region, Religion, gender can be discriminated against in their distribution. He spoke of the social, political and economic equality of Civil Rights in the face of injustices. Advocate Mrs Suparna Bahatti, who participated as resource persons for the second conclave, reported on women's Atrocity Issues and Legal Remedies. They provided legal information with their service experience. Dr. Suresh Nadagowda, the Vice Chancellor of the KSRDP University, has become a wealthy person for the third session, expressed that not all can afford the government job. The government provided information on various schemes for those who were able to do their own jobs and make better achievements, and talked about the problems faced by women working in factories such as factory building and factory due to globalization, privatization and liberalization. Cultural Union Secretary Kumar Vinayaka Katimani and Miss Likita V Gowda expressed their views on the program. Kumari Likhita V Gowda sung welcome prayer, Principal Prof. M. B Kolavi welcomed all. IQAC Coordinator Dr AK Math introduced the guests. Dr. Sandhya Kulkarni, a NAAC coordinator gave the opening remarks. Dr. Veena E hosted this program. Mrs. Veena Tirlapur, Mrs. Gaura Yalamali Shri. V C Chinnur, Prof P J Kattimani conducted technical sessions. In the end, the college students delivered a message that the girl should not be aborted, but by a silent Mime acting, respect and protect the daughter, the daughter-in-law. About 30 women workers from the unorganized sector and 150 students benefited from the program and the certificates were distributed. IQAC Coordinator Dr AK Math proposed vote of thanks those who contributed directly and indirectly in organizing the event.
