A one-day district seminar on "Demonetization in India" "Ethics in Education" and "Social Media" in collaboration with the Student Council and IQAC

A one-day seminar was held in collaboration with the Student Council and IQAC for inter-college students. Inaugurating the seminar, Editorial Editor-in-Chief, Mr. Amare Gowda, selected at the seminar, "Ethics in Education." To attain perfection as soon as you have the moral foundation of any work or personality. It is only through education. Money is important to do anything, but cashless trading is no stranger to India. From time immemorial it has been known that cash trading has been used as a form of commodity trading. Young people who are seduced by the media for external beauty must develop inner beauty. The media is not bad. He said that the young attitude of adopting them should change. He said that the morality of education can only be brought about in the society as the foundation of life.

Mrs. Rajani.Patil, who made the presidential remarks, wished students to well-behaved and successful in their career. Invocation by Kumari Shantha Hiremath, Kumari .Radha Kalaburgi was welcomed the gathering. Kumari.Sukanya Huli proposed vote of tanks to everyone.
