REPORT:

The festival was a bit different this year. This year, our K L E Society's Arts and Commerce College students encourages the 'Bonds of Solidarity' to tie rakhis, not just to siblings within India and internationally, but to go one step beyond and send your love and spread the joy of the festival to all protectors including our COVID-19 warriors like Police Men, who have safeguarded the nation through the Coronavirus Pandemic.

Our students made homemade Rakhi and did not buy anything from outside. As a precaution we asked the students to send it to college. And they did the same. One of our college Faculty Smt Veena Tirapur went to Gadag

Railway police Station with those Rakhi and Tie those to 12 police men who are incharge on that day. As the police men were very happy for the rakhi because because of Pandemic they are on duty and not able to meet their sisters for the festival time.

The colorful, vibrant , hand-made Rakhi by students, carried messages to the Corona Warriors at the police station, thanking them for all their efforts and sacrifices in protecting the people in the time of the pandemic.
