REPORT:

Today is the 146th birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, who is called an Indian freedom fighter and 'Iron Man'. He was born on 31 October 1875 in Nadiad, Gujarat. Every year his birth anniversary is celebrated as National Unity Day or Rastriya Ekta Diwas.

KLE Society's Arts and Commerce College Gadag in association with Nehru Yuva Kendra and Usiru Foundation organized Motorbike rally in the main streets of Gadag.

These motorcycle rallies were flagged off from K L E Campus to K C Rani Road, Rotary Circle to the Gadag District Stadium. More than 50 motorcyclists participated with full enthusiasm. The rally toured various important places for the maximum dissemination of the message of unity.

Member of Legislative assembly Shri. S. V. Sankanor Sir flagged off the bike and cycle rallies from the KLE Campus to K C Rani Road, Gandhi Circle, Rotary Circle to Gadag District Stadium, Gadag in his speech sir told National unity makes the nation strong and organized. National unity is the spirit that binds people of different religions, sects, castes, dresses, civilizations, and cultures together. As long as the unity of a nation is strong, that nation is also strong. But whenever external forces break the national unity, then the nation has to face many difficulties. India is a vast country and people of different communities, cultures and castes live together here.

Principal Prof M B Kolavi read the National Unity Pledge to all. And addressed that National integration has led to the formation of an invisible thread of equality that harmonizes different parts of the country. It certainly boosts the strength of the country.

LGB Chairman Smt Rajani Patil presides the event. Miss Ranjani of Nehru Yuva Kendra, Smt Renuka Patil of Usiru Foundation Gadag were present at the function. Dr Veena E hosted the programme, Principal Shri. M. B. Kolavi welcomed all the dignitaries and Smt Veena Tirlapur proposed Vote of thanks.
