REPORT ON

Two Days Workshop on "Systematic Literature Review and Art of Academic Writing" in collaboration with Centre for Educational & Social Education, Bangalore on 02nd and 03rd Feb 2024

The two days workshop was organized on 02nd and 03rd Feb 2024. The workshop was conducted on the topic "Systematic Literature Review and Art of Academic Writing" in collaboration with Centre for Educational & Social Education, Bangalore. Inaugural Session The day one of the event began with the speech by LGB Chairman Smt Rajani Patil and welcome by Dr. Veena E.

For the inaugural ceremony Prof. M. B. Kolavi, Principal KLE Society's Arts and Commerce College, Gadag was a Key note speaker and gave speech on the topic how to choose right topic for research. He discussed about fallacy of research gap and highlighted the importance of referring special issues of the leading journals. Dr. Dharani S. Session on Academic Articles. The second session was conducted by Dr. Sairam, CESS,

This workshop provided a platform for participants to delve into the intricacies of systematic literature review and meta-analysis, enabling them to elevate their research capabilities to new heights. With the overarching goal of promoting research excellence and enhancing evidence-based practices, the workshop drew participants from different departments and institutions of surrounding took benefit of the workshop.

The first day of the workshop commenced with an illuminating session on the fundamentals of systematic literature review. Dr. Muralidhar of CESS, a renowned expert in the field introduced participants to the significance of systematic reviews in synthesizing existing research to improve decision-making and practice. Attendees gained insights into formulating research questions that are both specific and focused, crafting systematic search strategies that encompass a wide range of sources, and employ transparent and reproducible Methodologies. Dr. C. S. Hasabi and Dr. Sandya Kulkari were also present in the workshop.

The second day of the workshop delved into the realm of meta-analysis - the art of aggregating data from multiple studies to derive meaningful conclusions. Expert for the workshop elucidated the principles of effect size calculation, addressing heterogeneity, and exploring strategies to mitigate potential biases.

The workshop also emphasized collaboration and networking, offering participants the chance to connect with peers, experts, and mentors. The interactive panel discussions and breakout sessions facilitated open conversations on emerging trends, challenges, and future directions in systematic review and meta-analysis. The commitment to promoting research excellence and evidence-based practices remains unwavering, and the department is eager to build upon this success by offering more learning opportunities in the future.
